The Transportation Security Administration released the following as a reminder for travelers unfamiliar with new TSA carry-on baggage requirements:

1. Please remove all coats, jackets and outer most garments.

2. Please remove your shoes for x-ray screening.
3. Please take out all metal objects, cell phones, keys, etc. and place them in a bin for x-ray inspection.
4. Please remove your laptop computers from your bags and place them in a bin for x-ray inspection.
5. Please keep your quart-size bags with liquids and gels out for x-ray inspection.

Additionally, TSA reminds travelers to think "3-1-1" when carrying baggage aboard any flight. For more information, please view the attached PDF file.
